Invitation

A multidisciplinary approach combines knowledge and skills from several academic disciplines to address complex issues and difficulties. Rather than studying each academic topic separately, a multidisciplinary approach focuses on connecting them.

This method is necessary for effective teaching and learning. Educators can provide a more comprehensive understanding of tough subjects and issues by incorporating information and talents from other academic fields, while also fostering students' critical thinking, creativity, and teamwork. To enhance the quality of research work multidisciplinary studies is the need of the hour

Against this backdrop 6th Indo Global Multidisciplinary Research Conference has been orchestrated at Ho Chi Minh, Vietnam on 1st to 4th November 2026.
